8. JUDGING SYSTEM

A panel of seven (7) judges will comprise a panel for each competition.

After all the marks of the judges have been submitted, the highest and lowest scores from among the scores of all the judges will be taken off and the aggregate of the remaining sets of marks will determine the final score.

9. TIE BREAKER

In the event of a tie for any position (same number of marks), the total score of marks of the SEVEN (7) judges will be used to determine the placings. After the marks of the seven judges have been totalled and there is still a tie (same number of marks), the competitors will be declared joint winners.

10. PARADE ROUTE

All bands must follow the PARADE ROUTE particularly when approaching all Judging Venues.

Route Maps will be distributed at registration.

Failure of bands to comply will result in a deduction of 15% of marks from the total score

It is incumbent upon bands to avoid unnecessary obstruction to the free flow of bands along the route or retarding other competitors in exercising their rights to performance.

Followers of Bands and spectators are not allowed on stage during Bands' presentations nor within the sterile area to be indicated by the National Carnival Commission. Only Attendants, Officials and Authorised Band Personnel will be allowed in these areas.

Bandleaders must comply with all the Rules and also Instructions of the Stage Manager, Stage Director or the Authorised Representative of the National Carnival Commission.

Bandleaders, Band Representatives/ Officials shall obey all Instructions of the Authorised Representative of the NCC.

National Carnival Commission of Trinidad & Tobago

11. REVIEW COMMITTEE

A Review Committee appointed by the NCC shall adjudicate on all matters relating to infringement of the Rules and Regulations and shall have the power to determine whether penalties shall be imposed.

The Review Committee shall comprise of-

- A member of the legal profession
- One (1) member of the carnival fraternity with experience in the production and management of carnival and who is not involved in competition in the current year
- One (1) member of a tertiary faculty of education specifically related to the arts or in particular Carnival Arts
- Chief Judge as ex-officio member

No Bandleader/Competitor shall form part of this Committee

The Review Committee shall have the power to disqualify any competitor, which based on the information submitted and evaluated by the Committee, has infringed the Rules and Regulations and shall have the power to determine whether penalties shall be imposed. The membership of the Review Committee will be published three (3) days before the start of the competition.

Appeals to the Review Committee should be made in writing and addressed to the Chairman, National Carnival Commission, 11 St. Clair Ave, St Clair.

An appeal can be made after the public announcement of winners and placement of competitor. The public announcement must include the overall score and any penalty deductions if so applied. Such an appeal must be made within 24 hours after the announcement.

No consideration will be given to applications made after the above proposed deadlines

The decision of the Judges and the Review Committee shall be final and binding.
